7:20 pm @ Dan & Teresa's House Members Present: 11 Guest: 0

Minutes & Treasurer's Report were approved

Old Business

River Rendezvous 2017: Rick Ralston passed out 5 copies of the new registration form. Missy Shea is seeking input. There will be no lunch on Sunday just snacks. There will be options for a century ride. We are looking for a group to offer Saturday lunch at about $5.00 per head. Teresa will contact the Lion's Club and the Leo's.

Devola Multi-Use Trail: Paul Lewis brought us up-to-date on the trail. The ODNR grant, which Paul and George Banziger, worked on was awarded, to the Muskingum Valley Trustees. This grant, in the amount of $200,000 will be available March 1st, 2017, and will pay for paving from the pavilion to Millgate, and will widen the bridge. The Woolpert engineering firm is starting on the trail extension study, through another grant recently reported on.

New Business

Letter to Marietta Times Editor: Dan Jones, wrote a response to a previously published letter to the editor which criticized the city of Marietta for funding improvements to the Lockmaster's house. With information provided by John Clark and Peter Prigge, Dan documented the relationship between the city of Marietta and MRCC. He also outlined the improvements that MRCC has completed and financed for the Lockmaster's house.

Memorial Contribution: John Clark will make a $100.00 donation to the Caring Connection for Garnet Stephens and $100.00 donation for Carolyn Putnam, charity TBA

Election of 2017: The same slate of officers were elected to continue in 2017. Dan Jones, President, Peter Prigge, Vice-President, John Clark, Treasurer, Teresa Griffith, Secretary.

MRCC Calendar 2017: The calendar was accepted and Rick Ralston will post on the club website.
